

Constitutional Democracy: Challenges and Roads to Recovery

Andrew Arato Doctor et Professor
Honoris Causa 80:
International Conference

WHEN?

09:00 a.m. C.E.T., 16 May 2025

WHERE?

1117 Budapest, Pázmány Péter sétány 1/A, North Building, 7th floor (7.18–21)

ORGANIZED BY

ELTE University Faculty of Social Sciences & the Doctoral School/Institute of Political and International Studies

PROGRAM

09:00–12:15	Populist Challenges (in English) Chair: Gábor Halmai
09:00–10:15	Ertug Tombus: When is a Populist No Longer a Populist? From Laclau to Arato and the Lifecycle of Populist Politics Paul Blokker: Populism, Protest and (Un-)Civil Society Anna Ujlaki: AI Governance and Populism
10:15–10:30	Reflections by Andrew Arato
	Coffee break
10:45–12:00	Daniele Stasi: Against the West. Historical Populism and Modernity Katalin Turai: Democratic Realism and Militant Democracy Fabio Gentile: From Vargas to Bolsonaro. Brazil as an Ideological- political “Laboratory” for a Global History of Populism
12:00–12:15	Reflections by Andrew Arato
	Lunch
13:15–16:30	The European Response to Populist Challenges (in English) Chair: Orsolya Salát
13:15–14:30	András Bozóki: Populism, Personalism, and Authoritarianism. Political Styles and Regimes Andrew Ryder: Rekindling the European Dream: A New Social Europe Andrzej Schultz: European Courts’ Response to Populism
14:30–14:45	Reflections by Andrew Arato
	Coffee break
15:00–16:15	Şebnem Dogandemir: Populism and the Crisis of Political Representation Giuseppe Foglio: Populism and Authoritarian Liberalism. Notes on a Controversial Relationship Rusudan Margiani: ‘So, Do You Want War?’ Politics of Fear of the Georgian Dream Party
16:15–16:30	Reflections by Andrew Arato

ELTE

FACULTY OF
SOCIAL SCIENCES